COOLMOR PORCH SHADES AND HAMMOCKS

Will Make Your Porch Comfortable For Summer

Coolmor Porch Shades are made of tough strips of linden wood, colored with a special dye, and are not affected by the weather. They come in widths of 4 feet to 10 feet with a drop of 7 feet 6 inches and the colors are brown and green, "fast" colors.

WOVEN HAMMOCKS

The Summer porch and cozy corner is not complete without a hammock. We have an exceptionally good line of woven hammocks in pretty color combinations. Prices range from $1.00 and up to $1.50.

DOOR AND WINDOW SCREENS

It is a good plan to get ahead of the flies, spring bugs and insects. The best way is to put them up before they get into the house, and then you will not be annoyed with them or worried in trying to get them out.

DEAD AT 87

Francis Xavier Duval Leaves Three Daughters and Three Sons.

Francis Xavier Duval, 87, died Friday morning at the home of his son, Adolphe Duval, of Summit street. He was the cause of death. He was born in France, and was a resident of this country. He had been a resident of this country for several years, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by three sons and three daughters. His wife, Mrs. Duval, died several years ago. He was a member of the French American Society, and was a very active member of the same. He was a very kind and generous man, and was loved by all who knew him. He was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday morning.

Working for Half Holiday.

At a recent meeting between representatives of the Willimantic Clerical Protective Association and the mercantile committee of the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, the matter of half holidays during the summer months was discussed. The mercantile committee appointed a sub-committee consisting of J. H. Hurley, J. B. Sullivan and E. J. Whitmore, to take the matter up with the market men, bakers and grocers, and report at a meeting of the mercantile committee this morning.

Funeral.

Mrs. Waldo Bass. The funeral of Mrs. Waldo Bass, widow of Waldo Bass, who died at her home in Scotland Friday afternoon, was largely attended. Rev. J. H. Hurley officiated, and the burial was in the Catholic cemetery. The bearers were Richard Gallup, John Taber, James H. Johnson and John Chesbro. Funeral Director J. M. Shepard of this city was in charge of the services.

An Inconsiderate Teamster.

There is one man who doesn't care how much work is put on the city's streets. He is the driver of a load of hay who has the power of the Main street end of Union street taken down so that he could drive through to M. H. Jones' stable. Instead of going around the way he is taking the same thing on new streets the bill for repairing would mount rapidly.

Moore Plan Carnival.

The committee appointed by Willimantic, Mo. 1910, L. O. M. to arrange for an open carnival on the Moore home property, which has been decided on the time for the event. The lodge expects to take a title to the property within a fortnight now, and then preparations will be rushed for the carnival, the proceeds of which will go toward the fund for the home.

Became Dizzy and Fell.

Miss Cora Brown of Pleasant street, an employee of the American Thread company, while on her way to the mills Friday morning was struck by a car and fell to the sidewalk near the Hickey building on Union street, cutting her nose and bruising her right eye. She was taken into Hickey's drug store in an unconscious condition and restoratives were applied. After treatment by a physician who was called, Miss Brown was assisted to her home by relatives.

Legal Notes.

Miss Julia Fenton has returned to her duties at the establishment of Henrietta McCulloch after an absence of several days occasioned by illness. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Whitmore have as guests for the week Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whitmore, who have returned from spending the winter in Lakeview, N. C.
